Report Summary

Assessment Confidence Level: Average

Along with assessing over seventy specific characteristics and capacities, the Innermetrix Talent Profile also measures the reliability of those results (the Assesment Confidence Level or ACL) and determines whether the profile is a true representation of John. The results of this report have an average reliability score and are true to John's nature and abilities.

This Innermetrix Talent Profile is scaled, Very Poor to Excellent, from 0 to 10. This graph summarizes the 6 categories that comprise this Innermetrix Talent Profile. A description and mean score for each category is on the following page. This Interview Success Profile will show you your greatest soft skills and strengths so you can show them off in the interview, and make you aware of some of your weaker areas so you are prepared to show how they are not an issue. It is meant o be used in conjunction with the IMX Interview Success Guide. If you do not have a copy of this FREE guide visit (www.innermetrix.com/interviewing) to download your copy now.

Category Overviews

A. PROSPECTING (6.7 or Fair)
This is the first step of any sale. It is the phase of the sale where prospects are identified, detailed background information is gathered, the physical activity of traditional prospecting is coordinated and an overall strategy for face-to-face selling is developed.

B. GREETING (8.9 or Excellent)
The first face-to-face interaction between a prospect and the salesperson, this step is designed to enable the salesperson to display his sincere interest in the prospect...to gain positive acceptance and to develop a sense of mutual respect and rapport. It is the first phase of face-to-face trust building and sets the face-to-face selling process in motion.

C. QUALIFYING (6.3 or Fair)
The detailed needs analysis phase of the face-to-face sale. This step of the sale enables the salesperson to discover what the prospect will buy, when they will buy and under what conditions they will buy. It is allowing the prospect to identify and verbalize their level of interest, specific wants and detailed needs in the product or service the salesperson is offering.

D. DEMONSTRATING (7.6 or Good)
This step allows the salesperson to present his product knowledge in such a way that it fulfills the stated or implied wants, needs or intentions of the prospect as identified and verbalized in the qualifying phase of the sale.

E. INFLUENCING (8.2 or Very Good)
What people believe enough, they act upon. This step is designed to enable the salesperson to build value and overcome the tendency that many prospects have to place little belief or trust in what is told to them. It is this phase of the sale that solidifies the prospect's belief in the supplier, product or service and salesperson.

F. CLOSING (5.3 or Fair)
The final phase is closing. This phase of the sale is asking the prospect to buy, dealing with objections, handling any necessary negotiation and completing the transaction to mutual satisfaction.
